Explanation	Eltrombopag can cause serum/plasma discoloration and interference with results of the above mentioned assays. Eltrombopag is an oral thrombopoietin receptor agonist that is used for treatment of certain patient groups with chronic immune thrombocytopenia. It is highly coloured and several reports showed that it can cause pH-dependent discoloration of plasma/serum. Interferences are also dependent on the Eltrombopag concentration and the wavelength of the photometer.
Impact on patient results	Patients treated with Eltrombopag, may receive falsely low/high results if the following reagents are used: Bilirubin Auto Direct FS Bilirubin Auto Total FS Creatinine FS Creatinine PAP FS The risk of misdiagnosis and inappropriate therapy exists, especially if results are assessed separately. For diagnostic purposes, the results should always be assessed with the patient's medical history, clinical examinations and other diagnostic findings.
Measures	If laboratory results of above mentioned assays are inconsistent with clinical observations for patients treated with Eltrombopag, measurements should be repeated using another method. Eltrombopag (CAS Registry Number: 496775-61-2) is used as oral thrombopoietin receptor agonist. Due to known side effects, other therapeutics are preferred; Eltrombopag is prescribed in exceptional cases only. The instructions for use, chapter 'Warnings and Precautions', were updated accordingly. Please inform all users of the affected products immediately.
